

ABOUT ME

My name is Kirsty, I am in my mid thirties and I am an English female living in Scotland.

I started my blog back in January 2015 to tell people about my weight loss story and to hopefully support others on their journey too.

When I am not writing for my blog I am a full time self employed Graphic/Web Designer, so my blog is all of my own work.

I write for my blog 2 or 3 times a week and I do not accept guest posts. Everything you see has been written by myself.
